Explosion in City Tenement House Exposes Badly Wrecked Still -House Set on Fire.

—House Net on Fire.

NEW YORK, Nov. $ —A whisky still blew up in an Allen street tenement house here last night, starting a fire and causing the tenants to rush from the building in a panic. Little damage resulted from the fire.

The door of the room in which the explosion occurred was blown down and the police found in the room badly wrecked a plant for making whisky.

None of the other tenants knew the occupant of the place, nor the existence of the still. The internal revenue officials have been notified and a search is being made for the owner of the plant.

The conference was behind closed doors and after the meeting every state senator-elect gave it as his opinion that the alleged attempt to steal seats of senators would fall.

A grandjury will be impaneled in Pueblo tomorrow morning and Democrats say they have every reason to believe that the disclosures which will be made will convince the people of the state at large of the truth of Democratic charges, and, like the action of former grandjury, will result in indictments being returned against Republican office holders.

The Supreme Court is this morning hearing new contempt cases, and indications are that more people will be sent to jail and fined. Senator Buckley's death, it is almost certain, will give the Republicans control of the legislature.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 28.—"Max Rickhardt, aged 27. Germany," is the way a mysterious prisoner who ended his life in the central police station here is described on the register. He is believed to have been an expert hotel thief and police of many cities have sought his custody since his arrest Tuesday. The police say he was a professional thief and was known as The German Prince" and by about a probably to see the World's Fair or to seek his fortune, and took to thlevery after he had lost his money or had been disappointed in securing profitable employment. His choicest plunder, some of which is alleged to have been secured from guests at the Hotel Jefferson in St. Louis, had been packed for shipment to Liddle Lang, Reichenback, Saxony, Germany.

After his arrest he became morose and sullen and at times seemed delirious. Before hanged himself he spoke of "Liddle" frequently. He begged his cellmates not to tell her of his disgrace. He appealed to the officers in charge to destroy her address, wherever found, that it might not become public and some one inform her of his disgrace.

He was arrested at the Grand Hotel, where he had registered as Clemen Christian Laueteren. He had passports and letters of recommendation that, it is alleged, were stolen from a prominent German army official named Laueteren, at the Jefferson Hotel in St. Louis. Previously he had registered at the Gibson House here as Julius Auer, traveling jewelry man, whose trunk was worth $12,000; he claimed.

Later the real Julius Auer arrived and found some of the valuables gone from his trunk. Then the princely German was truck to the St. Nicholas Hotel here, where he had registered as Max Greiner. Since his arrest telegrams have poured into Cincinnati from Indianapolis. Louisville and other cities, and especially from St. Louis, inquiring about the alleged "slick hotel thief." He had railway mileage in the name of J. Beitman of Cincinnati and of C. W. Nicols and L. Mconald of New York, all said to have been secured from rooms in hotels.

"Brace up" your system.

Everybody's system at times needs "bracing

The only true way to "brace up" or in plainer words to get back to real health is to get right at the real cause-your tired nerves-and attend to them.

When you feel tired most of the time, and yet don't sleep well.

When you don't care whether you eat or not. When you are blue-have headaches, feel all "run down"—that is when your nerves are tired out and need, "bracing up."

One bottle of Paine's Celery Compound will brace you up quicker than any treatment in the world, and it braces you up in the right way. It gets at the real cause and feeds new power to your tired nerves. It restores the nerves to healthy, vigorous action, then they do their work in the right way and stop bothering you. For 17 years Paine's Celery Compound has been the most universally used nerve vitalizer and tonic in the world. For 17 years—think of this fact and realize what it means. setts, tells of his experience with tired-out nerves that indicated their condition through indigestion and billiousness.

MALDEN, Mass., March 3, 1904.—"I take pleasure in recommending Paine's Celery Compound to any one that may be troub d with indigestion and billousness, or, in fact, any stomach or bowel trouble, as I consider it the best remedy of the kind in the market at the present time.

"I have made a practice for the last five years of using from one to two bottles every spring and fall as a first-class bracing-up tonic, regulating, in fact, the whole system. Yours most respectfully," John L. Howard, 71 Pleasant St., Councilman, 3d Ward.

When you are sick in some part of your body it is because some organ is not doing its work. That is because THE NERVES ARE NOT STRONG ENOUGH to keep that organ up to its work.

The better the inner nerve force the better all the organs can work and give perfect health.
Paine's Celery Compound feeds the nerves—restores them to their strength-gives them new power to send vitality and health to every part of your body, new courage to your heart, new animation to your brain.

Remember this—Paine's Celery Compound is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians this country has ever known, Prof. E. E. Phelps, of Dartmouth University.

We ourse this form of dyspepsis by repairing some of your teeth and replacing others. Remember, we don't extract seed teeth: we don't put in any bad teeth. We don't extract a tooth simply because it aches, but we often remove the cause of the ache and make the tooth good for a lifetime. #### GOV. ADAMS' APPEAL.

Mr. Alva Adams, who on the face of the returns is Governor elect of Colorado by a majority of 8000, issues a signed statement which is a model of sound public morality.

Mr. Adams, undismayed by the uproar excited by his opponent, Gov. Peabody, who proposes to "hold on," confidently appeals to the sense of law and order in the community and refuses to identify himself with any class or special interest.

"There cannot be one law for one interest and a different law for another interest,' says Mr. Adams, "but the same law for all." "The executive must see no difference between corporation and individual, rich and poor, when he evokes the authority of the commonwealth."

Had there been this adherence to strict justice and undis criminating fairness between citizens and interests, Colorado would have been spared the unhappy disturbances of the past eighteen months. Whatever the outcome of the electoral dispute, Mr. Adams points the only way out of the present troubles to peace and order.

It is foolish to say that nothing can be done to improve the suburban train service. The railroads owe it to St. Louis to so arrange schedules that local trains shall not be delayed. It would be good business to make such schedules that the suburbs would grow rapidly. It would pay to give such a service that people would be attracted to the suburbs and outlying towns, knowing that access to the city, for business or pleasure, is prompt and easy. With the expected decrease in through traffic at the close of the Fair, railway managers should turn their efforts in the direction of suburban improvement. Instead of dropping local trains, add to their number, and insure their running on time. That is the way to build up the city on normal and permanent lines.

It was the misfortune of France in 1789 that fools like this grand duke had the ear of the King. The crisis in Russia is so similar to that in France in 1789 would rather be gored by a bull than not that it appears strange the grand dukes and bureaucrats do not realize their danger. #### THE SOUTH AND NEW ENGLAND.

The New Orleans Picayune deplores the fact that the South is so far behind New England in manufactures.

New England has an area of 62,000 square miles and a popmation of 5,500,000. The southern states have an area of 827,000 square miles and resents not a coincidence merely, but cause and effect."

Mr. Foxoroft arrives at the conclusion that the woman suffrage movement has been cheeked after a survey of the situation in the several states. He finds in the United States four forms of woman suffrage in Montana, Iowa, Louisiana and New York, which becomes operative only when some special question of an appropriation for a given purpose is submitted to a vote of the tax-payers; school suffrage in seventeen states, payers; school suffrage in seventeen states, permitting women to vote for certain school officers; municipal suffrage in Kansas, giving women the right to vote for all city and town officers; and full suffrage in four states, Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho and Utah.

In the taxpaying suffrage states efforts to extend the voting privilege have been unsuccessful. In the school suffrage states to more than 4 per cent of the women who remonstrate against the suffrage to their sex are as intelligent, sincere, and as earnest as those who seek the ballot, and they claim to speak for an overwhelming but silent majority. The conclusion is that the woman suffrage movement in the United States has been checked by the women than against the further extension of suffrage to women. Thirty years ago only women of of voting age voted for a proposition to grant municipal suffrage appeared before legislative committees, and they claimed to represent all women. Now there appear before such committees, women who correct legislative committees, and they claimed to represent all women. In the state of Missouri the lawmake have laid down in exact terms a course of procedure which the finder of a sum of $10 or more must follow unless he wants to take the chance of receiving the penalty imposed for failure to obey the law. In the first place, he must within ter days make affidavit before a justice of the peace as to when and where he found the money. If the owner does not appear to claim the money within forty days the finder must within thirty days advertise it in a newspaper for three weeks. If still no owner appears, the finder must hold the money for a year, for delivery to the owner if he should turn up. Thereafter, no owner having appeared, the money passes to the finder and it can not be taken

The existence of this law has come to notice through the finding of a $500 bill by a laborer. He attempted to get it changed, and as his possession of a bill of so large denomination was regarded as suspicious by the merchant to whom it suspicious by the merchant to whom it was offered, he made inquiries, and learning that it had been found, retained it and deposited it in a bank to await an owner. # Territic Battle Is Expected When These Fighters Meet in San Francisco Tomorrow Night INDIANS' GAME NO CRITERION FOR "DOPE" CRITICS OF THE EAST

Meeting Between Haskell and Carlisle Did Not Give Fair Standard Upon Which to Base Merits of East and West.

From first reports of their opinions there seems to be a prospect that eastern football critics may become unduly excited over the value of the Carliste-Haskell Indian game as a criterion for judging the comparative football strength of the East and West.

The "dope," as they line it up for the purpose of giving the East a "class alone," is that Yale defeated Harvard 12-0, Harvard defeated Carliste II-0, and Carliste goes to St. Louis and beats Haskell 38 to 4, after the latter team had defeated Nebraska and Nebraska held Michigan to a close score. That is the way the logic lines up on paper, and on the same reasoning it would be interesting to know, figuring down the Texas and Washington games, how much Caicago would defeat Rose Polytechnic.

But, even accepting the scores of the games for figuring relative strength, it is impossible to use the Indian teams as a medium, for the reason that the strength of cittler team, and particularly Cartisle, is an unknown quantity from game to game.

But the only real test of supremacy and the control of supremacy and suppose the supremacy and suppose the supremacy and suppose the supremacy and the only real test of supremacy and suppose the suppose to suppose the suppose the suppose the suppose the suppose the su medium for the reason that the strength of either team, and particularly Cartisle, is an unknown quantity from game to game. They presented against Haskel Saturday one of the strongest teams that Carlisle ever had and easily the strongest they have had this year.

They have been weaker against the eastern schools because they could not play their coaches against Harvard and Pennsylvania as they did against the sister school in the absence of any sort of cligibility rule Haskell, it is true, played Archiquette, the great veteran, but he hardy counterbalanced the Pierces and big Ed Rogers.

Anyone who saw the game Saturday will know the part that these three men played in it and in the winning of the topheavy
